Dear Ambassador,

I am very excited to reach out and let you know more about YOUR COMPANY and the launch of our new YEAR Brand Ambassador program! We think you would be an excellent fit.

A little more about Your Company:

Give the background and mission of your company here- anything that you want them to know that accurately represents the brand.

From the Founder:

Any personal message from the founder (if you want)

Message from the founder here... personal welcome or more about company and/or their WHY.

SO, you can see why we think you would be a great fit for the team. Step one, get you some product to try, as well as information to learn more about the company and mission. If you genuinely enjoy the product and the company as a whole, I'll shoot over the formal breakdown on the opportunity and on board you to the team from there. We seek varsity humans and fully commit to making this as mutually beneficial relationship as possible, supporting our team members events, causes, and overall agenda. We want to grow together!

Please submit your address and product will be on its way. Please let me know if you have any additional questions in the meantime. I look forward to connecting soon!

Sincerely,
